

I am concerned about the number of independent media outlets in this country. If a few companies are allowed to own all the newspapers, radio and TV stations, then objective news coverage is questionable. The controlling interests of the few will dictate what the public sees and hears. This is a threat to our democracy. I urge you to vote against changing the current rules for ownership of the broadcast media on June 2.